

Front	Back
What is Original Sin?	The inherited sinful state passed down from Adam and Eve due to their disobedience in the Garden of Eden.
What is Augustine's interpretation of Genesis 3?	The Fall represents humanity's shift from a state of perfection to a state of sin, introducing lust, selfish desires, and a loss of harmony.
What was the state of Adam and Eve's relationship before the Fall?	Adam and Eve were friends who lived in harmony, working together to fulfil God's will without selfish desires or lust.
What is the summum bonum?	The greatest good, which is eternal happiness found in the presence of God.

Front

Back

How does Augustine believe Original Sin is transmitted?

Through sexual intercourse, which is tainted by lust and selfish desires.

What is concupiscence?

The disordered desire for physical pleasures and selfishness resulting from Original Sin.

What does Augustine believe about free will after the Fall?

Free will is weakened by sin, making humans incapable of achieving moral goodness without God's grace.

What is God's grace in Augustine's teaching?

God's generous love that enables humans to overcome sin and achieve salvation.

Front

Back

How did the Fall affect human societies?

It introduced instability, corruption, and selfishness into all human societies.

What does Augustine teach about human relationships after the Fall?

They are dominated by lust and selfish desires, leading to conflict and disharmony.

What does Augustine mean by the 'rebellious will'?

The human tendency to act against God's will due to the corruption of sin.

What is Augustine's view of human nature?

It is fundamentally flawed due to Original Sin but can be redeemed through God's grace.

Front

Back

What is the role of faith in Augustine's theology?

Faith is essential for accepting God's grace and overcoming sin.

What is the significance of the Cross in Augustine's teaching?

The Cross represents God's ultimate act of grace, redeeming humanity from sin.

What does Augustine teach about salvation?

Salvation is only possible through God's grace, not human effort.

What does Augustine say about human morality?

Humans cannot be consistently morally good due to the effects of Original Sin.

Front

Back

What does Augustine believe about the historical Fall?

He teaches that the Fall was a real historical event that fundamentally changed human nature.

What does Augustine teach about the purpose of life?

The purpose of life is to seek God and achieve the summum bonum through His grace.

What does Augustine teach about sin and human society?

Sin is the root cause of corruption and instability in all human societies.