

Front	Back
Who was Dietrich Bonhoeffer?	A German Lutheran pastor, theologian and anti-Nazi dissident who lived from 1906 to 1945.
What does Bonhoeffer's concept of 'costly grace' mean?	Grace that requires sacrifice and commitment, as opposed to 'cheap grace', which demands nothing of the recipient.
What is the significance of the Confessing Church?	A movement that resisted Nazi interference in the German Protestant Church, emphasising loyalty to Christ over the State.
What was Finkenwalde?	A seminary established by Bonhoeffer to train pastors in spiritual discipline and community life.

Front

Back

What did Bonhoeffer believe about the Church?

The Church is a community of believers, bound by Christ, and a source of spiritual discipline.

How did Bonhoeffer justify civil disobedience?

By arguing that Christians must obey God's will above the laws of the State when the two conflict.

What is meant by 'obedience to God' in Bonhoeffer's teaching?

Placing God's commands above all earthly authorities and being willing to act on them, even at great personal cost.

What does Bonhoeffer mean by 'ethics as action'?

Ethics is not abstract theory but lived out in concrete actions that reflect God's will.

Front

Back

What role does suffering play in Bonhoeffer's theology?

Suffering is an inevitable part of following Christ and sharing in His sacrifice.

What does solidarity mean in Bonhoeffer's teachings?

Standing with and for others, particularly the oppressed, as an expression of Christ's love.

What did Bonhoeffer say about leadership?

True leadership is service to others and obedience to God, not seeking power or domination.

Why did Bonhoeffer oppose the Nazi regime?

He believed it contradicted Christian principles and sought to replace God with the State.

Front

Back

What does Bonhoeffer say about knowing God's will?

It requires prayer, reflection, and action, but it may not always be clear or easy to discern.

What is the 'cost of discipleship' according to Bonhoeffer?

The willingness to give up everything, including one's life, to follow Christ.

How does Bonhoeffer's theology relate to modern issues?

It challenges Christians to live out their faith actively and resist injustice, even in contemporary contexts.

What is the role of spiritual discipline in Bonhoeffer's teaching?

Spiritual discipline is essential for maintaining faith and resisting worldly temptations.

Front

Back

What is Bonhoeffer's view on sacrifice?

Sacrifice is a necessary part of discipleship, reflecting Christ's ultimate sacrifice for humanity.

Why is Bonhoeffer's teaching relevant to debates on civil disobedience?

It provides a theological basis for opposing unjust laws and prioritising God's will over human authority.

What challenges might Christians face in following Bonhoeffer's teachings today?

Balancing obedience to God with societal expectations, and discerning God's will in complex situations.