

Front	Back
What is heaven in Christian teaching?	Heaven is often described as the eternal presence of God, a state of ultimate happiness and union with Him.
What is hell in Christian teaching?	Hell is traditionally seen as a place of eternal separation from God, often depicted as a state of punishment for the wicked.
What is purgatory?	Purgatory is a state of purification for the soul before entering heaven, according to Roman Catholic teaching.
What is the physical interpretation of heaven?	Heaven is seen as an actual place where people go after death to experience eternal happiness and physical presence with God.

Front

Back

What is the spiritual interpretation of heaven?

Heaven is understood as a spiritual state of complete union and peace with God, rather than a physical location.

What is the symbolic interpretation of heaven?

Heaven is viewed as a symbol of living a moral and virtuous life in alignment with God's will on Earth.

What is the physical interpretation of hell?

Hell is seen as an actual place of torment and punishment, where the wicked experience eternal suffering.

What is the spiritual interpretation of hell?

Hell is understood as a spiritual state of separation from God and the absence of His presence.

Front

Back

What is the symbolic interpretation of hell?

Hell is seen as a symbol of a life lived in moral failure and separation from God's guidance.

What is the physical interpretation of purgatory?

Purgatory is seen as a physical place where the soul undergoes purification through suffering before entering heaven.

What is the spiritual interpretation of purgatory?

Purgatory is understood as a spiritual state of cleansing and preparation for the soul to fully unite with God.

What is the symbolic interpretation of purgatory?

Purgatory is seen as a symbol of the moral and spiritual growth a person undergoes during their life.

Front

Back

What is limited election?

Limited election is the belief that only a select few, chosen by God, will achieve salvation.

What is unlimited election?

Unlimited election is the belief that all people are invited to salvation, but not all will accept it.

What is universalism?

Universalism is the belief that all people will ultimately be saved and reconciled with God.

What does the parable of the Sheep and the Goats teach about judgement?

It teaches that judgement is based on moral actions, particularly caring for others, reflecting God's values.