Parental Survey into Online Learning – January 2021

We have endeavoured to provide both a safe and high-quality educational experience in difficult circumstances using the resources we have. Over the course of the last lockdown period we have developed and refined our provision and blended the delivery of learning, moving towards 'live lessons'.

We value your opinion on the provision of learning at CCHSG so far this term and ask that you complete a short survey found here, so that we can further improve our provision. We would appreciate if you could sit with your child and complete the survey together. The deadline for the completion of this survey is Monday 25 January. Many thanks in advance for your time.

The consultation for the arrangements for awarding grades for GCSE, AS and A Levels this summer can be found via this link the consultation which includes the Extended Project Qualification can be found using this link. These consultations are open to anyone who wants to respond and includes students who had been expecting to take their GCSE, AS or A level exams this summer, their parents and carers, their teachers, school and college leaders, exams officers and those who use the qualifications to make selection decisions, such as further and higher education institutions and employers. The consultations end on Friday 29 January at 23.45.

We realise this is a challenging time for all our students, but want to encourage everyone to stay strong and keep studying. If any student feels that they need wellbeing support at this time, they should contact their Year Leader who can advise and signpost suitable resources and support.

Small changes can make a BIG difference...

Below are just some of the stress-busting things that you can build into your life. Try and pick one thing from each category for your Action Plan.

Start planning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create a clear space to work in; it will help clear your mind as well! • Create a revision timetable • Put a blocker on websites/social media that distract you - just for set periods while you work • Write a list of realistic tasks/goals for each day and complete one straight away • Organise your notes into subjects, topics etc • Create a 'pick me up' playlist for when the going gets tough 	Stay positive <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • At the end of each day, write down three things that have gone well • Focus on what you can do not what you can't • Put an end to negative self-talk such as "I'm useless"; "It's all going to go wrong"; "I'm a failure". Be nice to yourself! • Try and imagine things going well • Don't take yourself too seriously. Exams are important, but not worth getting ill over 	Get physical <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Eat well: including 5 fruit or vegetables a day • Drink lots of water - at least 2 litres a day! • Get some exercise - anything that gets your heart beating a bit faster will lift your mood • Go to bed an hour earlier • Have a bath before you go to bed • Put lavender on your pillow to help you sleep • Avoid electronic equipment for an hour before bedtime 	Connect with others <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Talk to someone close to you about how you are feeling • Find ways that you and your friends can support each other • Do something kind for someone else • Ask teachers for help if you don't understand something (that's what they're there for!) • Revising doesn't have to be boring. Revise with friends; test each other; make it fun 	Time OFF! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Treat yourself to five/10 minutes of 'me time' after every 45 minutes of study • Take at least one day off a week to relax. This is important! • Spend time doing things that you love i.e. hobbies, listening to music, reading, watching a film • Take five minutes, in a quiet space, to simply BREATHE; in over four counts, hold for four counts, out over four counts

How to create your Stress LESS Action Plan in 3 simple steps...

Your Stress LESS life starts here...

1. Decide on five small changes you are going to make over the next five weeks (see our list of ideas for inspiration). Write those changes at the top of the Action Plan below, in the spaces provided.
2. Record your changes by putting a tick in the box everytime you make that change in a week.
3. Rate out of five how you feel at the end of each week. 1 = No stress 5 = Overwhelmed

Five small changes; For five weeks; Feel better	Change 1 Write your 1 st change in this space	Change 2 Write your 2 nd change in this space	Change 3 Write your 3 rd change in this space	Change 4 Write your 4 th change in this space	Change 5 Write your 5 th change in this space	Rating: (1 - 5)
