

What is Colchester County High School for Girls Commitment regarding special educational needs and disability (SEND)?	Colchester County High School for Girls (CCHSG) is an 11 to 18 selective grammar school for girls with academy status. Colchester County High School for Girls takes a whole school inclusive approach, recognising that the aims of the school are the same for all students. The school is committed to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promoting a positive learning environment that challenges, supports and celebrates every student's achievement through an inclusive academic and pastoral curriculum. • Enabling all students to become part of our school community irrespective of their individual needs • Recognising the value of each student and their potential to progress in all areas when individual needs are addressed • Enabling all students to develop personally, socially, morally and spiritually, in order to make a successful transition into adulthood, as well-rounded, confident individuals • Maintaining high expectations by staff for all students and emphasising the involvement of all staff in responding to the needs of all students. The school recognises that a student has SEND if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for them and as defined in the SEND Code of Practice 2015. The school accepts that a student has a learning difficulty or disability if they: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age or • Have a disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of educational facilities of a kind generally provided for use of others of the same age in mainstream schools or mainstream post 16 institutions The school has a Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Policy, displayed on the school website www.cchsg.com and a designated member of the Governing Body with responsibility for SEND. The school has a Data Protection Policy and conforms to GDPR requirements.
What kinds of special need do we provide for at Colchester County High School for Girls?	The school provides support for students across the 4 areas of need as laid out in the SEND Code of Practice 2015: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communication and interaction (ASD*, SLCN) • Cognition and Learning (Learning difficulty, including dyslexia, dyspraxia, dyscalculia) • Social, emotional and mental health difficulties (ADHD, ADD, Anxiety, ODD, OCD) • Sensory and/or physical needs (Physical, visual or hearing impairment, sensory processing disorder) (see key terms at end of document)
How does Colchester County High School for Girls identify and assess students with SEND?	A student may be identified as having a special educational need (SEN) or disability (D) at any stage during their education. This may be a long-term difficulty requiring continuing support or a short-term difficulty requiring a specific intervention.

	Students are identified as having SEND and their needs assessed through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Year 7 transition information from Primary School or previous school • Cognitive Abilities Test data • Baseline testing • Screen tests e.g. for reading • Observations and work scrutiny • Teacher feedback • Referrals from parent • Student self-referral • Information/reports from the medical profession
What should I do if I think my child may have special educational needs?	If you think that your child may have special educational needs that have not been previously identified or you have concerns about your child's SEND, you should contact the school and ask to make an appointment with the Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENCO). If you have any concerns about your child's special educational needs, please contact: The SENDCo: Mrs Daniel - kdaniels@cchsg.com Tel. 01206 576973 The Assistant SENDCo: Mr Kidby - kkidby@cchsg.com Tel. 01206 576973
How will the school respond to such a concern?	Information from all of your child's subject teachers will be collated and then considered by the Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENDCo) in liaison with colleagues. The SENDCo will contact you either by phone, or email to find out more specific and detailed information regarding your child's individual needs. An initial meeting will be arranged to capture your child's view, the parental perspective and that of the school. Strategies will be discussed and agreed in conjunction with all parties and the SENDCo will draw up a Support Passport to provide guidance for support strategies for teaching staff.
What provision is there for students with SEND?	If your child needs additional support, their name will be placed on the school's SEND Support Register. The school aims to ensure the fullest possible access to the curriculum for students on the SEND Support Register. The SENDCo in liaison with you, your child and your child's teaching staff will formulate an individual support plan (Student Passport). This document will outline your child's needs or difficulties and will describe the recommend strategies and advice for teaching staff to guide them as to how they can best support them in the classroom. In addition to the Student Passport, the SENDCo in liaison with you, your daughter and your daughter's teaching staff, will create a One Plan (Action Plan for SEND provision). Your child's Passport and One Plan will be shared with all staff working with them, therefore promoting consistency of approach and encouraging maximum support and in turn progress for your child. Provision for students with SEND includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Quality first teaching, with appropriate personalisation in place

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Extra adult support in classrooms where appropriate • Personalised provision through adapted spaces, resources and interventions • Adjusted timetable • Study or homework support • Additional revision sessions • Support with organisation and time management • Mentoring by peers and teaching staff • Small group programmes especially for English and Maths • Individual pathways at Key Stage 4 • Access arrangements (e.g., extra time) for examinations. These will be known and established as the student's normal way of working. Should it become necessary, the school will work with parents and other agencies to make an application for an Education Health and Care Plan (EHCP) to secure funding for further support. In line with statutory duty, any student with an EHCP will have Preparation for Adulthood targets included in their EHCP from Year 10 onwards. Targets will come from the four categories detailed at www.preparingforadulthood.org.uk Employment / Independent Living / Friends, Relationships and Community / Good Health.
