

German

- If you have access to textbooks (paper or online) continue to practise grammar and learn new grammar.
- Cover any topics, which haven't yet been completed.
- Use exam board web sites to practise Listening and Reading skills.
- If you have access to Exampro, then practise Listening and Reading in particular.

Topic work:

Research the history of Germany since World War Two. Look at the history of East and West Germany. What was life like in each country? How was it different and why?

Find out about the Fall of the Berlin Wall and its significance for Germany.

What is meant by "die Wende"?

What have been the consequences of Reunification?

Research any aspect of the German-speaking world which interests you, including Austria and Switzerland.

Cultural:

Watch German films.

See if you can watch "Good Bye, Lenin", "Das Leben der Anderen", "Sonnenallee", any of the "Ostwind" films, any current German TV series on Sky, Netflix, etc.

See if you can read a novel in German. Having the English version alongside helps.
